Busy Teacher Educator Guides are commissioned by ESCalate. ESCalate, the Education Subject Centre Advancing Learning and Teaching in Education, is a UK – wide member of the Higher Education Academy Subject Centre Network. It includes Bristol University, St. Martin's College (the University of Cumbria) and Stirling University. Together we produce and disseminate resources for staff and students in Higher Education.

At St. Martin's College (the University of Cumbria) we aim to support the Initial Teacher Education community in as many different ways as we can. We are building a Help Directory for teacher educators, of which is a part, and if you would be interested in contributing please email escalate@ucsm.ac.uk. We run seminars and workshops on specific ITE topics and hold an annual conference, all of which are detailed on the ESCalate website www.escalate.ac.uk.
