

Programme Summary

09.30-10.00	Registration and Refreshments			Reception
10.00-10.15	Welcome	Dr Tony Brown, Director, ESCalate		Main Hall
10.15-11.00	Opening Plenary	Students as Agents for Change in Learning and Teaching	Liz Dunne University of Exeter	Main Hall
11:00-11.30	Refreshments
11.30-12.30	Parallel Sessions
	A	Active Participation in Learning	Joan Walton Liverpool Hope University	Syndicate Room 12
	B	What Does it Mean for Students to become Agents of Change?	Liz Dunne, Roos Zandstra and Harriet Whewell University of Exeter	Syndicate Room 10
	C	The Student Voice – can you hear us?	Jennifer Redman, Claire Sharples and Victoria Todd University of Central Lancashire	Syndicate Room 11
	D	Student Engagement through Collaboration: enhancing the curriculum with learners as partners	Helen Gough and Linda Proudfoot Glasgow Caledonian University	Syndicate Room 9
	E	Student Involvement and Stakeholder Requirements: emancipation to abdication	Joe Gazdula Liverpool Hope University	Main Hall
12.30-13.45	Lunch/Poster Presentations			Syndicate Room 1
13.45-14.15	Keynote Address	The Importance of the Learner Voice in 21st Century Higher Education	Aaron Porter Vice President - National Union of Students (NUS)	Main Hall
	Parallel Sessions
14:25-15.15	A	Reflections on the part time learning experience of mature students at the University of Glamorgan	Charlotte Freeman University of Glamorgan	Main Hall
	B	Students Taking the Lead – Student Engagement: The Ecoversity Story	Sheri-Leigh Miles University of Bradford	Syndicate Room 11
	C	Using Lecture Capture to enhance teaching and learning and meet student expectations and needs	Steve Rose University of Exeter	Syndicate Room 9
	D	The Relationship between Research and Employability – a personal perspective	Jodie Hunter-Lamontanaro University of Plymouth	Syndicate Room 12
	E	Could Student Engagement activities be used to encourage a greater take-up of Study Abroad opportunities? Gathering students' views	Fiona Hyland and Fumi Kitagawa University of Bristol	Syndicate Room 10
15:15-15.30	Refreshments
15:30 –16:00	Final Plenary and Questions		Dr Tony Brown, Director, ESCalate	Main Hall